2455. SHRI BHAGATRAM MANHAR: Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) what are the reasons for little response from the Arab investors to the Oil Exporting Developing Countries (OEDC) Investment scheme of 1981;

(b) what are the specific objection raised by the Arab investors regarding taxation and administrative controls in India;

(c) What are the details including annual production capacity and equity investment of the Indian and Arab investors in each project and the scheduled date by when they are or were to begin according to the original plans;

(d) what are the approved projects which have not yet started and the reasons therefor;

(e) what are the details of the investment proposals from the Arab investors being studied by Government at present; and

(f) what are the changes being considered by Government in OEDC Scheme?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI

JANARDHAN POOJARI): (a) and (b) Investment decisions have to be taken by parties having access to investible resources and with reference to their own investment criteria. It is difficult to assign any specific reason for the slow response to the investment opportunities created in the country for OEDC parties. Suggestions or proposals received from OEDC investors regarding taxation and administrative regulations are considered on merits.

(c) and (d) Information will be laid on the Table of the House.

(e) It is not desirable to disclose details of current proposals at this stage.

(f) No change in the OEDC investment scheme is being considered by Government at this stage.
